What is 53 Vaginas and Vulvas[©] (#53VV)?

This art installation is a symbolic honorarium to the some 53 million (plus) women who have experienced sexual assault or rape since 1998 in the United States.

Every gourmet vagina and vulva is created in a playful, flavorful manner; with paintings representing one of the artists' favorite foods. The contextual food motif invites the viewer to enjoy the “feast of female identity”. Each “personality” description reminds us of the distinct beauty of every survivor.

The name of each painting also includes a slang or uncommon word used for vaginas or vulvas.

About #53 VV ©

#53 Vaginas and Vulvas® was created by artist, author, assault survivor and PTSD healing advocate Georgia M. Reash, with the intention to inspire delight and discussion around difficult topics of the day.

#53VV is a tasteful installation of 53 paintings of literal/abstract interpretations of women's genitalia. Each painting offers a savory meaning with titles inclusive of slang and uncommon terminology.

#53VV celebrates women, the strength of survivors, and the joy of healing the wounds. It was inspired by Georgia's personal story and statistics estimating that some 53 million U.S. women have been raped since 1998.
